This is a delightful 1 bedroom apartment in the heart of Arona, perfect for a couple or family with small children, within walking distance of Arona's shops, cafes, restaurants and public transport links.

The apartment can sleep up to 4 guests. Inside there is the apartment boasts an open plan living, dining and kitchen area (with sofa bed) as well as a bathroom with shower and double bedroom. The interior is contemporary in style and its dual aspect windows allows guests to enjoy incredible views across the lake to the Rocca di Angera in one direction and into one of Arona's main piazzas in the other.

Arona is an absolutely charming lakeside town. In Medieval times it was the principal seat of the powerful Borromeo family. Its links to this family can still be seen today throughout the town, not least in the prominent statue of Carlo Borromeo that towers above Arona. This was actually once the tallest statue in the world before the Statue of Liberty was built and took away their record! Arona has a charming lakeside promenade which is popular with the locals who enjoy their passeggiata along it every evening. Arona also has a wide selection of shops and restaurants to enjoy. For those travelling without a car, the boat stop is within easy walking distance of the apartment allowing guests to easily access all the other towns and villages on Lake Maggiore on foot. For those with a car, public parking is available at a cost of 8 euros per day.
