This historic, stately Puglia residence is an impressive place to stay. It consists of a main villa and small separate dependence.

The main villa is set over two levels. On the ground floor there are three bedrooms, each with ensuite bathroom as well as a two bedroom suite with both rooms again enjoying ensuite facilities, one of which also has an unusual glass floor allowing guests to see the ancient cistern below. These rooms all enjoy direct access to the garden and are equipped with large wall mounted TVs and minibar. There is also a professional kitchen on this level which can be hired on request for events and weddings as well as a private gym and living room. The latter is a stunning space. Once an ancient 19th century chapel, it's now an elegant spacious room with star vaulted ceilings and beautiful windows. On the second floor, there is a master apartment with three bedrooms all with ensuite facilities. One of these rooms is the master bedroom which is absolutely beautiful and whose bathroom is covered in Carrara marble. Also on this floor, there is a well equipped kitchen, dining room, formal living room and family room, complete with TV and fireplace. Access on this floor leads to incredible terraces overlooking the grounds of the property and enjoying panoramic views of the surrounding countryside. There is also a service bathroom and laundry room. As you would expect, the furnishings throughout are of the highest quality and the design is impeccable, with barrel vaulted ceilings and original and unique decorative mosaic flooring. The separate dependence is also beautifully presented and would make an ideal space for a nanny or housekeeper to stay. It boasts a large double bedroom with ensuite bathroom and living room which, if preferred, can be transformed into a second twin bedroom with its own bathroom, ideal for a nanny to take the children for the evening. There is also a fully equipped kitchen in this part of the property. Outside, the villa is set in extensive grounds. Access to the estate is along a road of around 300 metres lined with elegant cypress trees. As you make your way up the driveway, you can not fail to fall in love with the beauty of Villa Maestosa, set behind an exquisite fountain. The private pool (16 x 8 metres) sits just to the side of the property and is surrounded by luxurious loungers. On one side a covered terrace provides welcome shade from the heat of the sun. If you are planning a special occasion, wedding or celebration, then this certainly provides the perfect venue.

Copertino is the nearest town, just 4 km away. Here you'll find a good selection of amenities. Lecce is just a little further on, around 6 km away.
