

This is a beautiful villa furnished to a high standard. It is situated within a few minutes walk of the centre of the popular town of Santa Maria il Bagno which is just 900 metres away. This is a charming seaside town with a beautiful historic centre and excellent beach. The villa is located in a residential area so other houses are nearby but guests are not overlooked due to its elevated position above the road set behind secure electric entry gates.