

Villa Sophia is a beautiful villa, nestled in the hills overlooking the coast of Tuscany. On a clear day, the views from the property are incredible stretching across to the cliffs of Corisca. The location in the tranquil village of Corsanico, is ideal for those looking for a holiday home in the countryside whilst still being close to the sea and to important cities such as Lucca (30km), Pisa (30km), Pistoia and the Cinque Terre (90km).
