For active guests, the house is also surrounded by miles and miles of official 'tracks' offering the perfect base for those who enjoy walking or mountain biking. Further afield, there is a challenging golf course as well as other outdoor activities including horse riding, micro-lighting and, during the right season, truffle hunting. Please note that there is an internal laundry room and garage at the property too. The garage has space for three cars whilst there is ample additional parking within the grounds.

The rolling hills of Tuscany are also within easy reach as are the beaches of Fano should you want a day at the coast.

Useful to Know

This is the most beautiful luxury villa in Umbria. From the moment you arrive you'll immediately feel like you're in the lap of luxury. A generous welcome basket awaits and the local property manager, Francesca, will be on hand should you need anything at all during your stay. The location is quite rural so we think this is the perfect villa if you're looking for long, lazy days by the pool knowing you have complete privacy.
