This is a traditional 2 bedroom Dagnente apartment enjoying the most wonderful lake views. It can comfortably sleep up to 6 guests thanks to a sofa bed in the living area.

As you enter this Dagnente apartment, you will see the kitchen straight ahead. This is a traditional kitchen with cream units. There is a gas hob as well as a built in oven and microwave, double sinks and fridge / freezer. An archway leads to a dining area with a good sized table which has both bench seating as well as chairs to seat up to 6 people comfortably. Doors lead from here to the balcony which wraps around the property. This Dagnente apartment also has a large living and dining room, traditionally but tastefully furnished with sofas (including a sofa bed) and armchairs, a large wooden table and focal fireplace. There is also a TV in this room. Dual aspect windows and doors bring in plenty of light and lead guests onto the terrace and balcony. There is an outdoor table and chairs here making the most of the wonderful views. The balcony at this Dagnente apartment does enjoy the afternoon sun but there are blinds that can be lowered to provide shade if required. There are 2 bedrooms in this Dagnente apartment. The master bedroom is a lovely light room with double bed, plenty of wardrobe space and an ensuite shower room. The second bedroom has a single bed with the option of a pull out bed below to create a double bed. Guests using this bedroom have use of a large family bathroom with a bath tub with overhead shower. Please note that for stays over 28 days, guests may pay for the cost of any utilities used during their. For stays under 28 days, utilities are included in the rental rate.

The apartment is situated in the village of Dagnente which is well placed for exploring Lake Maggiore and the wider Italian Lakes region. It is within a few minutes walk of a popular, traditional trattoria and bar. The village also has a couple of other shops too including a hairdresser and clothing store.
