This Carovigno apartment couldn't be better located. Literally perched on the edge of Carovigno's walls, it's the perfect location to easily explore all that Carovigno has to offer. Since there is so much within walking distance, a car is not necessary but, should you wish to bring one with you, then there are public parking spaces within a short walk of the property.

Sleeping two people, this Carovigno apartment has one large bedroom furnished with a kingsize bed. There is also a large open plan living, dining and kitchen area. A dining table comfortable seats up to four guests whilst the kitchen is fully equipped. There is a Nespresso coffee machine, small fridge, oven and hob and sufficient utensils and crockery for you to prepare meals in the comfort of your own apartment. Outside, guests share a large terrace area with those staying in the other smaller rooms on site. A number of tables are set out where guests can enjoy breakfast. In addition, there are deckchairs and loungers so that you can enjoy a spot of sunbathing during your stay. Not only that, but there is also a mini hydro massage pool for you to enjoy along with an outdoor shower to cool off in. The decor throughout this Carovigno apartment is modern, stylish and contemporary. Please note that should you be travelling with others, there are additional rooms in the same location as this Carovigno apartment which can also be rented. Please ask for more details.

Carovigno is a charming town, with whitewashed buildings sitting in direct contrast to its central caramel-coloured castle - Dentice de Frasso. The town has a long and rich history, making it a fascinating place to stay. A stay at this Carovigno apartment will ensure that you can reach all the town has to offer on foot. Just a few steps away is the famous Michelin star Gia Sotto L'Arco restaurant. There are a host of other excellent bars, cafes and restaurants within a short walk.
