It is situated near Asciano in Tuscany, just half an hour drive from the historic centre of Siena. It is extremely well equipped and furnished elegantly and to a high standard. We think it's the perfect base for a holiday in Tuscany!

As guests enter this Siena luxury villa rental there is an entrance hall leading off to a living area on the right and large kitchen on the left. This area has an open plan feel to it. The kitchen was newly installed in 2019 and is superbly equipped with everything guests could possibly need and want during their stay. Guests have the use of a double fridge / freezer with ice maker, a double sink, a dishwasher and warming drawer along with a large oven and induction hob. An attractive sideboard houses a massive collection of plates, glasses and crockery. A stone archway leads to an adjacent double bedroom with ensuite shower room. The ground floor living area in this Siena luxury villa rental is elegantly and comfortably furnished with sofas and chairs. There is also a single bedroom and study area on this floor and a further double bedroom. The single bedroom has both a daybed and desk, perfect for a spot of quiet reading or study. Large glass doors leading to the terrace at the front of the property lets light flood into the room. An adjacent bathroom, decorated with green mosaic tiles, can be for the exclusive use of this room or can be used as a downstairs toilet for the other guests. The double bedroom leads off the living area and has an arched doorway leading out to a private terrace equipped with metal table and chairs. An ensuite bathroom has a shower, sink and toilet. Beautiful travertine stairs lead to the first floor of this Siena luxury villa rental. On this floor, there is another living area with comfortable seating arranged around a traditional open fireplace. This is a beautifully furnished property. The owners live in the Far East and this influence can be seen in many of the fabrics and furnishings. The style is a perfect blend of traditional and modern. We love it!
