This villa in Marsala dates back to the early twentieth century but it has been renovated to a high standard. Inside, the decor is elegant. It cleverly combines modern, contemporary design with some beautiful antique pieces in keeping with the age of the villa. Outside, the property is set in delightful gardens which in turn are home to a private salt water swimming pool.

The Italian garden at this villa in Marsala really is beautiful. The gardens are filled with mature Mediterranean plants and palm trees. In addition, there are ample lawned areas on which to relax and enjoy the Sicilian sunshine. An elegant staircase leads from the garden to a spacious balcony which has been decorated with majolica tiles. From here guests can enter the interior of this villa in Marsala. Guests will come first into a living area. This really is the heart of the home. It has been furnished with stunning period furniture and its vaulted ceiling adds real character and charm to the space. The other rooms lead off this central space. There are two elegant double bedrooms inside this villa in Marsala. Both have ensuite bathrooms with showers. There is then another double bedroom as well as a twin bedroom furnished with two single beds. This room has a delightful little balcony where guests can enjoy a morning cup of coffee! Finally, there is a well equipped kitchen on this level and a small terrace overlooking the garden below. Please note that a caretaker lives in a separate flat on the ground floor. He will respect the privacy of guests but, should you need anything, he will be happy to assist you. Rest assured, guests will have exclusive use of the pool area during their stay. Please note that this villa in Marsala is one of the sustainable villas in Italy available to book with Bookings For You. The entire estate runs on solar power. The kitchen sinks are also equipped with advanced water filters, providing guests with clean, refreshing water and thus eliminating the need to buy bottled water during your stay. Pets are welcome on request at this villa in Marsala. There is an additional fee of 150 euros per stay for a pet.

A stay in this villa in Marsala will mean you're just a few minutes from the sea and the historic centre of Marsala itself. The latter is 3 km away whilst the coast is just 2 km away. This villa in Marsala is located just a few minutes away from the magnificent Stagnone Lagoon. This is a beautiful, unspoilt nature reserve. Here you can enjoy a refreshing swim. Alternatively, you will also find a number of bars and restaurants here where you can enjoy an aperitif or a bite to eat whilst taking in the fantastic view of the Egadi Islands, the salt pans of Marsala or the island of Mothia. Also within easy reach is Trapani, Agrigento, the Temples of Selinunte, Segesta, Favignana and more.
