This Lucca holiday rental was once part of the Controni family estate. The Controni family was a powerful family in Lucca and this house would originally been used as the private olive mill. These days, this Lucca villa provides a high level of accommodation for holidaymakers looking to explore this stunning area of Tuscany. The beautiful red exterior of the house provides the perfect backdrop to the private pool that sits in front (13m x 4m and 1.8m deep).

Inside, thus Lucca holiday rental perfectly combines traditional Tuscan country living with modern luxuries. Exposed wooden beams and original terracotta floors are the perfect backdrop to the traditional warm prints used on the soft furnishings. The result is a calm, cosy and relaxing space in which to unwind from the stresses of day to say life. On the ground floor of this Lucca holiday rental is a large, spacious living area. Plenty of sofas and chairs provide seating for everyone and doors lead out to the terrace, gardens and pool area. There is also a spacious kitchen on this floor. A dining table here seats up to eight guests. Six steps lead up from this floor to the master bedroom. It has a large double bed (170cm x 190cm) and boasts an ensuite bathroom with shower.
