Villa Salina is a beautiful 6 bedroom villa in the Aeolian Islands. The villa oozes luxury and the local team ensure guests are well looked after during their stay. Croissants and fresh fruit will be delivered each morning and there is a daily maid service each morning. Linen is changed every 3-4 days for your comfort too. The interior is beautiful, furnished with stunning Sicilian pieces, interesting antiques and sumptuous fabrics.

This villa in the Aeolian islands was once the barracks of the local carabinieri, but these days its a beautiful holiday home. The villa is laid out over two floors and consists of a stunning living space along with three bedroom suites, each of which boasts two bedrooms. On the ground floor of this Aeolian Island villa is a beautiful living room. This is furnished with comfortable sofas, whilst the walls are adorned with stylish artworks and pictures. The room enjoys direct access to the porch and garden. There is also a well equipped kitchen and a dining room leading off this living space. The dining room is furnished with a grand cedar table which can comfortably seat up to 12 guests, whilst the kitchen is extremely stylish and contemporary. Also on the ground floor of this villa in the Aeolian Islands is the first of the bedroom suites. This suite has two double bedrooms, each with their own bathroom with shower. These bedrooms also share an additional small living space and small kitchen area, perfect for the preparation of light meals and snacks. Upstairs there are two further bedroom suites, each enjoying access to a terrace boasting phenomenal sea views. These suites are both arranged in the same way as the suite on the ground floor of the villa. However, each suite has its own style and character. We particularly love the sophisticated roll-top bath in one of the bedrooms here. Outside, there is a lovely porch area at this villa in the Aeolian Islands. This is the perfect spot to enjoy breakfast, with views over the rooftops to the sea beyond. From here, there is access to the garden, filled with the scents of citrus and flowers. A heated, salt water infinity swimming pool (12m x 6m) provides the perfect place to cool off from the heat of the sun. This There is an adjacent seating area under a pergola, ideal for al fresco dining. There is a separate laundry room within the grounds and there is plenty of parking. Electric scooters are available for guests to use for an additional cost. There is also a wine cellar from which guests can purchase wine to enjoy during their stay.

This villa in the Aeolian Islands is located on Salina. This is a picturesque island, ideal for those that love spending time on the coast and at the beach. It's also great for those that love the great outdoors with plenty of hikes to enjoy.
